Basilicata

Extraordinary Calabria, a land of a thousand surprises. Breathtaking, for those who see it for the first time, is the picturesque and spectacular coast of Tropea, on the Tyrrhenian sea (Calabria is also boarded by the Ionian). But in Calabria, the surprises never end.

Basilicata's natural beauty, ancient culture, deeply rooted local traditions, genuine Mediterranean food (denoted by its deliciously simple flavours and smells), and above all the warmth and hospitality of its people, will leave you with unforgettable memories.

TROPEA: La Porta del Mare ***

Via Liberta' 59

The hotel is about 300 mts from the sea and a few hundred mts from the main square in Tropea, set in the lush greenery of a wonderful terraced garden. From the garden you can admire the crystal-clear sea and some charming corners of the old town centre, and on some days, you can even see as far as Stromboli. The rooms are very comfortable and welcoming, each with an independent entrance from the garden, and they all have a minibar, TV, safe, ventilator and hairdryer.
