

Veneto

Prato della Valle e Basilica di Sant'Antonio, Padova

The region of Veneto is definitely worth considering if you are planning a short visit to its capital - Venice. Visit small, unspoilt areas such as Bassano del Grappa, Asolo, Verona and Padova and stay at least a night in one of the famous Venetian Villas.

Verona

They are great pit stops for those continuing North, or simply a more relaxing alternative to Venice. The renaissance town of Asolo has amazing views of the Dolomite mountains, narrow streets with Gothic arcades and facades decorated with frescos. Bassano del Grappa sits at the base of Mt Grappa and its historic centre with medieval buildings and baroque palazzi add the charm of this picturesque town. It is renowned for its centuries-old production of handcrafted ceramics and of Grappa liqueur.
